patented invention, and/or by contributing to the manufacture, use, sale, and/or offer for sale of methods and products embodying the patented invention.

14. Defendants' infringement of the '572 Patent has caused E-Markets monetary harm in an amount to be proved at trial. In addition, unless restrained, Defendants' continued infringement of the '572 Patent will cause E-Markets irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

15. E-Markets' products and processes embodying the patented invention have properly been marked with references to the '572 Patent.

16. Upon information and belief, Defendants have known of the '572 Patent since the date of issuance, but have continued to infringe the '572 Patent. In addition, the president of Decision Commodities, Kevin Kimle, was a founder of E-Markets, was fully aware of the methods and technology underlying the '572 Patent, and has known about the patent application resulting in the '572 Patent since it was filed in 2001. Defendants, therefore, have knowingly and willfully infringed the '572 Patent in complete disregard for E-Markets' rights.

Prayer for Relief for First Claim

WHEREFORE, E-Markets prays for (a) an order finding that Defendants have infringed the '572 Patent; (b) an accounting for and an award of damages, including lost profits, resulting from Defendants' infringement, and/or reasonable royalties for such infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284; (c) a trebling of E-Markets' damages because of the knowing, willful, and wanton nature of Defendants' conduct; (d) an assessment of interest, both prejudgment and post judgment, on the damages awarded; (e) a finding of this case to be exceptional and an award of attorneys' fees incurred by E-Markets in this action pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285; (f) a preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants' continued infringement of the '572 Patent; (g) an order directing that all goods and products in the possession, custody, or control of Defendants that infringe the '572 Patent be delivered up and destroyed within 30 days of entry of judgment; (h) an award of E-Markets' costs in bringing and prosecuting this action; and (i) such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b), E-Markets demands a jury trial on all issues triable by jury.

Dated June 1, 2007.

Respectfully submitted by,

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COME NOW, plaintiff E-Markets, Inc. for its complaint against defendants Decision Commodities, LLC, Growmark, Inc. and Ramaanchar Technologies, Inc. and states as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff E-Markets, Inc. ("E-Markets") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business at 807 Mountain Ave., Suite 200, Berthoud, Colorado 80513.

2. Upon information and belief, defendant Decision Commodities, LLC ("Decision Commodities") is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Iowa, with its principal place of business in Iowa. Upon further information and belief, Decision Commodities is in the business of selling products and offering services in interstate commerce, including sales in the State of Iowa and this District. Kevin Kimle, the President of Decision Commodities, is a former founder and officer of E-Markets.

3. Upon information and belief, defendant Growmark, Inc. ("Growmark") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware. Upon further information and belief, Growmark is in the business of selling products and offering services in interstate commerce, including sales in the State of Iowa and this District.

4. Upon information and belief, defendant Ramaanchar Technologies, Inc. ("Ramaanchar") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Iowa, with its principal place of business in Iowa. Upon further information and belief, Ramaanchar is in the business of selling products and offering services in interstate commerce, including sales in the State of Iowa and this District.

5. Upon information and belief, defendants Decision Commodities and Growmark formed a partnership in 2004 to deliver and develop grain risk management products and services, including the infringing software product, commonly referred to as "Norman." Upon further information and belief, Ramaanchar developed and maintained the Norman software product for Decision Commodities.

6. Decision Commodities, Growmark, and Ramaanchar are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants."

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. The Court may exercise subject matter jurisdiction over the claims set forth in this complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338.

8. The Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants in this action on the grounds that, upon information and belief: (a) Defendants have committed acts of patent infringement in the State of Iowa and this District; and (b) Defendants do business in the State of Iowa and this District directly, through authorized distributors and dealers, and/or by offering and selling products over the Internet, including in Iowa and this District, through their websites www.decisioncommodities.com, www.growmark.com, and www.ramaanchor.com.

9. Service of process on Defendants in this action will be effected pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(h).

10. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Patent Infringement)

11. E-Markets incorporates by this reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 to 10 as though fully set forth herein.

12. On April 3, 2007, United States Letters Patent No. 7,200,572 was duly and legally issued to E-Markets as assignee for the invention "Method and Apparatus for Pricing a Commodity" (hereinafter "the '572 Patent"). (A true and correct copy of the '572 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.) E-Markets owns all rights and interests in the '572 Patent, including the right to exclude other from practicing the invention and the right to recover damages for any infringement of the Patent.

13. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe the '572 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering for sale methods and products embodying the patented invention, inducing others to make, use, sell, and/or offer for sale methods or products embodying the
